Following is the note:

You are instructed to present the following note to the German for Foreign Affairs :

ment, I have the honor to inform your Excellency, in reply to your note reparation for the sinking of the Wi iam P. Frye, that the Govern that the objections urged by it agains submission of this case to the prize court for decision have commended themselves to the Imperial German Government, and it equally regrets that the reasons presented by Imperial German Government for court have failed to remove the obtions of the Government of the Un States to the adoption of that course.

As this disagreement has been the views of both Government previous correspondence a further exdispute would doubtless be able, and the Government of the United States, therefore, welcomes Excellency's suggestion that settling this case.

Chance for Settlement Seen

The two methods of settlement pro as alternative suggestions your Excellency's note have been give eved that if they can be so that they may both be add they will furnish a satisfactory basis the solution of the questions at issue. The Government of the United States has already expressed its desire that the question of the amount of demnity to be paid by the Imperial German Government under its ai-mitted liability for the losses to the owners and captain on account destruction of the Frye should be a tied by diplomatic negotiation by putting out our eyes?
